

Privacy Policy

Policy Statement

The Club is committed to meeting all obligations and requirements under the Privacy Act 2020, and to the operation and management of a system that ensures the protection of all personal information.

This document sets out how the Club may collect, hold, and use personal information. By providing your personal information to the Club, you consent to its use, storage, and disclosure in accordance with this Privacy Policy and the Privacy Act 2020.

Policy Principles

- We will collect the minimum amount of personal information it needs to deliver its services and support its members and employees.
- We will protect the information we hold from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification, or disclosure.
- We will ensure that the personal information we collect, use or disclose is accurate, complete and up to date.
- We will ensure you have access to the personal information held about you, and that you can review, update and remove as required.

Privacy Officer

We will have a Privacy Officer, as required under the 2020 Privacy Act, who will have responsibility for oversight and will be the contact point for fast resolution of any Privacy issue.

Scope

The Policy is for anyone who provides, collects, accesses, or uses personal information held by the Club. It is expected that all users and providers of information will:

- take reasonable care around accuracy of collection.
- take reasonable care that their own acts or omissions do not adversely affect the security and accessibility of personal information.
- comply, so far as is as reasonable, with any instruction that is given by the Club to allow the Club to comply with the Act.
- cooperate with any reasonable policy or procedure of NZ Bridge relating to the protection of personal information, and right to privacy.

Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed every two years but may be reviewed more frequently if legislative changes so require.
